GUEST POLICY

1. At the Board's direction, Pool Management shall refuse admission to any person who is not a member or who is not a guest of an active member.
2. The Stockholder must accompany their guests at the pool, register them and pay applicable guest fees.
3. The Stockholder shall be responsible for their guests and their comfort.
4. Any non-active member is a guest.
5. Each stockholder in good standing has a total of Ten (10) free guests visits for each pool year. Upon reaching the 10 guest limit a $5 (five dollar) fee will be imposed per guest unless the guest is a child under the age of 5 then the guest fee is $2. The fee applies regardless of the time of day the guest arrives.
6. A special pass can be issued for regular baby-sitters and/or grandparents at the rate of $75.00 when the parent is not present. If the parent is present, the regular guest policy applies. Members interested in a babysitter pass should contact pool management.
7. One (1) special "Event Pass" will also be issued to each stockholder. The event must be supervised by a member; the picnic shelter or gazebo must be used and must be scheduled in advance with pool management. Pass issuance is at the management's discretion.
8. Pool Management has the Board's authority to suspend any member from the use of the facilities if the guest violates any of the rules governing conduct of members or guests. This authority includes Pool Management's suspension of the stockholders' guest privileges if a member fails to meet their obligations under this section of the rules.
